Women Now Have Political Arguments

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
URBANA, O., Oct.—Things are living up in a political way here. Advent of woman suffrage is credited.

The wife of a democrat, a well known Urbana society woman, visited the wife of a neighbor, a republican.

A discussion of politics featured the visit.

It wasn't long until the hostess took issue with the democratic utterances of her visitor. The heat of the argument steadily mounted.

The climax was reached when the hostess, stepping to the front door, ordered her guest to leave and never return.

CLARMOND WAS GOODY-GOODY NAME

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
CHICAGO, Oct.—Mike Dick, Harry and Jack were fine names for boys, but when those at the Calhoun School here learned that there was a Clarmond in their midst they made life miserable for him.

Clarmond White, thirteen, deserted school and was picked up by police in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, a few days later. He promised to return to school and mother if the latter would change his name to just plain "Bill."

The West.

The younger Michaux, in his travels west of the Alleghenies in 1802, says that the common inquiry in the newly settled was, "From what part of the world have you come?" As if these vast and fertile regions would naturally be the place of meeting and common country of all the inhabitants of the globe.—Henry David Thoreau.

SAY FAIR CO-EDS "VAMP" PROFESSORS

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
BERKELEY, CAL., Oct.—Lip sticks, mobile eyes and winning ways have supplanted the fountain pen, midnight oil lamp and text books and California girls, noted for their beauty, are winning their class marks at the University of California with these substitutes.

Thus charges the Daily Californian, the student paper at the big school. The paper declares that certain of our unboarded instructors are still susceptible to feminine charms, and adds that the co-eds, the sorority sisters, are aware of this fact. And because of their famed beauty the California girls are easily winning their degrees. The student paper has opened a vigorous campaign against the "vamping" of the professors.

"Can't Cut Off My Leg" Says Railroad Engineer

"I am a railroad engineer; about 20 years ago my leg was seriously injured in an accident out West. Upon my refusing to allow the doctor to amputate it I was told it would be impossible to heal the wound. I have tried all kinds of salves and had many doctors in the past 20 years, but to no avail. Finally I resolved to use PETERSON'S OINTMENT on my leg. You cannot imagine my astonishment when I found it was doing what over 100 things had failed to do. My leg is now completely cured."—Gus Haupt, 799 Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.
